VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR FORFEITURE

Comes now Petitioner United States of America, acting by and through the United States Attorney for the Western District of Texas and the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, pursuant to Rule G, Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and respectfully states as follows:

I. NATURE OF THE ACTION

This action is brought by the United States of America seeking forfeiture to the United States of the property described below:

- 2014 Master Road Bus, bearing Vehicle Identification Number 3M9JL60A2EB041003.

(hereinafter referred to as the “Respondent Property”).

II.

This is a civil forfeiture action in rem brought against the Respondent Property for the violation of Title 31 U.S.C. § 5332, and subject to forfeiture to the United States pursuant to Title 31 U.S.C. § 5332(c)(1).

31 U.S.C. § 5332. Bulk cash smuggling into or out of the United States

(c) Civil forfeiture.-

(1) In general.— Any property involved in a violation of subsection (a), or a conspiracy to commit such violation, and any property traceable to such violation or conspiracy, may be seized and forfeited to the United States.

III.
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

Under Title 28 U.S.C. § 1345, this Court has jurisdiction over an action commenced by the United States, and under Title 28 U.S.C. § 1355(a), jurisdiction over an action for forfeiture. This Court has in rem jurisdiction over the Respondent Property under Title 28 U.S.C. §§ 1355(b) and 1395(b). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 1355(b)(1)(A), because the acts or omissions giving rise to the forfeiture occurred in this District, and pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §§ 1355(b)(1)(B) and 1395(b) because the Respondent Property was seized in this District.

The Respondent Property was seized in the Western District of Texas, on or about June 3, 2017, and turned over to Homeland Security Investigations (“HSI”). The Respondent Property has remained in the custody of the United States Customs and Border Protection, Office of Fines, Penalties and Forfeiture, within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court, Western District of Texas, Pecos Division, and shall remain within the jurisdiction of the court pending litigation of this case.

IV.
FACTS IN SUPPORT OF FORFEITURE

On June 3, 2017, United States Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) Canine Officer, David Almengor (“CBPO Almengor”) observed the Respondent Property enter the outbound lane at the Presidio, Texas, Port of Entry. CBPO Almengor noticed the bus did not look familiar as to the ones that normally cross at Presidio, and decided to have it inspected. The bus contained three drivers and three passengers. CBP Officer Andrew L'HommeDieu (“CBPO L'HommeDieu”) received negative declarations for currency in access of $10,000, weapons, and ammunition from the drivers and all passengers. The drivers, Edmundo Vargas-Sanchez (“Vargas”), Benjamin Alarcon-Giron (“Alarcon”), and Edgar Marin-Corral (“Marin”) all presented a valid entry documents. Driver, Vargas, stated the Respondent Property was on route to Chihuahua, Chihuahua, Mexico, from Dallas, Texas.

Homeland Security Investigations (“HSI”) Special Agents Mike Wright (“SA Wright”) and April Skinner (“SA Skinner”) were called to the Presidio Port of Entry to investigate. The HSI agents determined that the bus contained three different company logos displayed on the bus; “Apple Tours,” “FUDSA Transportaciones Turisticas,” and “Los Rapidos de Dallas.” The passenger baggage on the bus contained baggage tags labeled “Flores Express.” An inspection of a document folder that was found behind the bus driver’s seat showed the bus had Mexico insurance issued to Ricardo Flores-Hernandez (“Flores”). A Mexican title showed the Respondent Property was a white, 2014 Road Master, diesel, autobus bearing Mexico plate number 614-RN-6 registered to “Transportaciones Turisticas FDUSA, Durango, Durango, Mexico.” The folder also contained documents showing the Respondent Property was insured in the United States from May 31, 2017 through July 30, 2017 to “Autobuses Los Rapides de Dallas,” and a copy of a Texas International Fuel Tax License valid from January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017 that was issued to Silvia Hernandez, doing business as “Autobuses Los Rapidos de Dallas,” 6505 Glenmoor Drive, Garland, Texas 75043. The Respondent Property displayed a Department of Transportation (“DOT”) registration and motor carrier numbers issued to owner operator “Los Rapides de Dallas.”

Co-driver, Marin, was interviewed, and stated he had been employed for approximately eight months as a driver for “Turismos Flores,” which was owned by Flores. Marin stated that Flores owns three buses; however, this was the first time Marin had driven the Respondent Property. Marin stated he was told by, co-driver and the senior bus driver, Vargas that Flores was in the process of purchasing the bus, and it was on loan to test drive and determine if it was worth purchasing for the fleet. Marin provided details about the dates and route of the trip from Chihuahua, Mexico to Dallas, Texas. Marin stated that Francisco Carrera (“Carrera”) was the owner of “Autobuses Los Rapidos de Dallas,” and they use his office as a bus stop to load passengers. Marin stated that Carrera has two buses that he operates, and is the owner of the DOT tags used by Flores on his buses.

Senior driver, Vargas, was interviewed and stated he has worked with “Turismos Flores” for approximately two years, and the owner of the bus was Flores. Vargas stated, that “Rapides de Dallas” was owned by Carrera who leases his DOT operating license to Flores. Vargas stated, the Respondent Property was the third bus for Flores to acquire, and he had purchased it approximately on May 11, 2017. Vargas stated, this trip was the first crossing into the United States since the bus was purchased.

HSI agents corroborated the crossing history provided by the three drivers concerning times and dates of the buses and vans crossing into and out of the United States. The three drivers were released, and the Respondent Property and $213,400.00, more or less, in United States currency were administratively seized by CBP.

On August 21, 2017, Flores administratively petitioned for the Respondent Property stating that he was an innocent owner. Record checks revealed the owner of the Respondent Property was “FUDSA Transportaciones Turisticas” (“FUDSA”). SA Wright asked Flores for information that would show him as the owner. Flores submitted a document from FUDSA, stating that Flores was solely responsible for the Respondent Property even though it was registered to FUDSA. FUDSA stated, Flores had purchased the bus through an intermediary, and they were no longer the owners.

Based upon the foregoing, the Respondent Property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 5332(c)(1), as property involved in violation of 31 U.S.C. § 5332.

V.
PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Petitioner, United States of America, prays that due process issue to enforce the forfeiture of the Respondent Property, that due notice, pursuant to Rule G(4), be given to all interested parties to appear and show cause why forfeiture should not be decreed,<sup>1</sup> that a warrant for an arrest in rem be ordered, that the Respondent Property be forfeited to the United States of America, that the Respondent Property be disposed of in accordance with the law, and for any such further relief as this Honorable Court deems just and proper.
